

THE MOULIN DE KERLAUTRE

Nestled in the heart of Brittany lies the Moulin de Kerlautre a 17th Century Watermill tastefully converted to a comfortable two person Gite

In a tranquil setting, enjoy the sound of running water and birdsong, undisturbed from the hustle and bustle of everyday life.

INSIDE THE GITE

The front door leads to an open plan fully equipped kitchen, dining and sitting room, attractively furnished and decorated

A separate well-appointed bathroom equipped with a full size shower is also on the ground floor

For colder nights an oiled fired heater is provided for your comfort

A staircase leads to a Mezzanine bedroom equipped with a double bed

THE GROUNDS

The Gite is set in a hectare of amazingly diverse scenery including formal gardens, lawn, woodland, rockery and river with several sitting places around the grounds.

The owner's property is onsite but the landscaping ensures privacy

Enjoy tranquil walks through the woodland or sit and relax and watch the Kingfisher on the river bank

The Moulin de Kerlautre is ideal for those who are seeking peace and tranquillity with the chance to unwind whilst offering a central base to explore the rugged coastlines of the north, ancient towns, lakes and beaches and invigorating walks in the surrounding countryside

WHAT IS PROVIDED?

- Welcome pack
- A fully equipped kitchen
- Bed linen, towels and a choice of pillows
- Washing machine
- Large landscaped and wooded gardens with garden furniture
- BBQ
- Off road parking

The Gite is in central Brittany in a small hamlet of 5 houses near Guémené-sur-Scorff. Rural Brittany offers rolling countryside, sometimes wooded, sometimes open with an amazing network of deserted roads

Approximate non-stop, direct travel times by road from the ports are: Roscoff 2hrs; St Malo 2.5hrs; Caen 4.5hrs; Cherbourg 4.5hrs and Calais 7hrs. If you are flying and then hiring a car Lorient is 45mins; Brest 2hrs and Dinard 2.5hrs

PRICES

Prices range from £225 per week in the low season to £375 per week in the high season, minimum stay of 7 days in high season. Discounts can be applied for stays of longer than one week

CONTACT

For further details please contact Chris Lang by e-mail in the first instance

Le.moulin.de.kerlautre@gmail.com